- Highland Evening Dress with jacket, black tie or jabot, stiff or soft white shirt.
- White tie and tail coat
- Armed Forces' Mess Dress.
- Decorations
- Highland accoutrements are encouraged.
- Coloured bow ties, coloured shirts and smoking jackets should not be worn.
- Gentlemen should not remove their jackets.

Ladies should wear:

- Full length ball dresses with hems no more than 6 inches from the floor all the way round. Slits are permitted but they must not be higher than the knee.
- Tartan sashes and tiaras are encouraged.
- Culottes and trousers should not be worn.

CHRISTMAS BALL

The Christmas Ball is a black tie ball.

Gentlemen should wear:

- Highland evening dress with jacket, black tie or jabot, soft white shirt.
- Armed Forces' Mess Dress or Mess Undress.
- Black dinner jacket, tartan jacket or smoking jacket, black trousers or trows.
- Decorations (except by those in uniform), coloured bow ties and coloured shirts should not be worn.

At no time should gentlemen remove their jackets.

Ladies should wear:

Dresses as for the Summer Ball, although full-length skirts may be worn rather than ball dresses.

Tartan sashes are encouraged.

Tiaras, trousers or culottes should not be worn.

PICNIC BALL

This is a relaxed picnic and reel party and the dress is casual – e.g. open-necked shirt, jerseys and kilts or trows for gentlemen and the equivalent for ladies.

9 – 90's Reel Party

This is a family Reel Party where those over 18 should dress similarly to the Christmas Ball whilst those under 18 should wear their best party kit.
